Destruction By Fire.

Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Suffers Nearly a Million Dollar Loss.

BURNING OF A BREWERY PLANT.

Every building belonging to the Falk, Jung & Borchert Company Entirely Destroyed—A Cincinnati Brewery Also Meets With a Small Loss.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 5.—The Falk, Jung & Borchert Brewing company's plant, located on South Pierce street, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth avenues, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. Not a building of the great plant was spared. The fire originated in the malt house and spread with great rapidity destroying the malt house, the brew house, the offices, the bottling department and finally spreading to the beer cellars.

The total loss is estimated at from $700,000 to $800,000, and the insurance reaches only half of this sum. The beer cellars contained 32,000 barrels of the number one, and the bottling department was stocked with 6,000 more barrels, ready for shipment to the south. As the brewery is located at the city limits, it was very difficult for the fire department to do effective work, and two hours after the fire started the great plant was a mass of ruins. The cause of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been overheating of the malt house.

The capacity of the brewery was 600,000 barrels of beer per year and 300 men were employed in the establishment. The only way was a consolidation of the former Falk Brewing company and the Jung & Borchert Brewing company, which were merged into one on October 16, 1888, with a capital of $1,000,000. Very expensive improvements in the shape of additional machinery and such to the old Falk Brewing company had just been completed, amounting to $200,000 and a new refrigerator, which alone cost $50,000 had just been put into place. All this was destroyed by the fire. Sixteen large tanks of amount used in connection with the refrigerator exploded and helped to spread the fire to the adjoining buildings. No one was seriously injured by the fire. The brewery will be rebuilt immediately.

Loss to Cincinnati Brewery. CINCINNATI, July 5.—Yesterday the stables of the Gorka brewery, located at 228 West Court street, were badly damaged by fire, originating from a smoker. The building had caught fire twice before during the morning but was distinguished with but slight damage. The third time the fire was in the hay loft and damaged the building and contents to the extent of $3,000. The building was flooded with water. There were thirty horses and a number of wagons and a lot of harness in the building, which was got out with the help of the salvage corps. Bonnie French, the boy who is supposed to have thrown the firecracker, was identified by Kullin, and arrested by Officer McNamara. The building was well insured but the contents were not.

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED.

Several People Seriously Injured, Although None Fatally.

COLUMBIUS, Ga., July 5.—A passenger train on the Western road was wrecked three miles west of Geneva yesterday morning. The locomotive and passenger coach and sleeping car went down an embankment. Following is a list of the injured: W. Mitchell, of Tallahassee, injured internally; J. L. Black, of New York, badly hurt about the head; J. H. Palmer, chief of police, of Columbus, hurt in the back head and breast; Miss Reid, of Macon, seriously injured internally; Mr. Nicholson, of New York, face badly bruised.

A Riot at Wheeling, W. Va. WHEELING, W. Va., July 5.—There was an exciting time in the ward here last night. A riot occurred between Irish, Italian and negro laborers on the railroad tunnel, and an Irishman named McCaskey was beaten and kicked by Thomas Carpenter, colored. Till it is thought he cannot recover. Two policemen arrested Carpenter but had to fight about 500 white laborers before they could take him to jail. All the police force in the city had to be called in before the riot was finally quelled and there is a possibility the trouble is not done yet.

The Burning of a Ship. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—The fire at the oil tank has been extinguished. About 2,000 barrels of the fluid boiled over and rushed down a trench to Charles creek. The oil flowed down the creek as far as Canonsburg, flames fifty feet high rising from it and burning a railroad bridge and three empty bridges in its course. The loss on the oil and tank is about $15,000, fully insured.

A Fight Exhibition. MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 5.—Peter Jackson sparred four rounds with Tom Lees before a small audience last night and made a favorable impression of his qualities as a fighter. There were several other bouts during the exhibition, among others one in which Tom Connor, the wrestler, donned the mitta for the first time and afforded great amusement to the spectators.

We May Get It Yet. PARIS, July 5.—M. Anton Proust cannot get the money to pay for "Angelic." Mr. J. E. Sutton, of the American Art association, has agreed to pay for it tomorrow, and unless the Louvre can get the money by Monday the painting will come to America.

PREPARING FOR THE FIGHT.

The Sullivan-Kilrain Affair Will Take Place According to Program.

NEW ORLEANS, July 5.—Reynold Stevenson and Duffy, who left town last night to look up available sites for the fight in event of Governor Lowry fulfilling his threat to camp the state militia on the state line, returned this morning. All are uncommunicative, but admit that they have in view half a dozen places easy of access by roads previously agreed upon. There will be a conference on the subject when Charley Johnson and Jim Wicksley arrive and the question will be definitely decided.

The managers admit that unforeseen obstructions may prevent the fight from taking place on Monday, but say the men are bound to come together during the week if they fight in a private room with one hundred spectators. Sullivan and Duffy arrived shortly before noon yesterday. Just before his Mississippi state line was reached his special car was attached to an engine in waiting, and rushed across the border to prevent the anticipated interference by the authorities. To avoid demonstration at the depot here Barlett persuaded Sullivan to leave the train at a point on the Louisville road, four miles from the city, whence he was driven into town and to the rooms of the Louisiana Athletic club.

The large crowd assembled at the depot were charged when the procession of sports filed from the train and Sullivan was not among them. The occupants of the train took carriage to the St. Charles hotel, followed by a big band of shouting for Sullivan, and demanding to see him. Sullivan went to Spanish Fort in the afternoon, where three rooms were reserved for him. He stood the journey well, and was perfectly fresh.

The governor of Alabama has replied to Governor Lowry's demand, generally his permission to pass troops through Alabama in order to head off and capture the pugilists if they attempt to fight in Mississippi. It is thought that Governor Nichols will do likewise.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTIONS.

Proceedings of the Meetings in Dakota and Montana.

SIOUX FALLS, Dak., July 5.—The constitutional convention of South Dakota was called to order here yesterday by Judge Carson, of the Black Hills. The governor's proclamation calling the convention in session was read, and Sheriff A. J. Edgerly, of Mitchell, was selected by acclamation as permanent chairman.

The committee on rules was authorized and directed to confer with the constitutional convention which met for the first time at Bismarck yesterday, in regard to the appointment of a joint committee to meet in that city, and agree upon a division of the territorial property and debt.

The president was instructed to send congratulatory greeting by telegraph to the constitutional conventions in session in North Dakota, Montana and Washington territory.

Montana's Convention. HELENA, Mont., July 5.—The constitutional convention assembled in the court house at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and nominated Hon. J. K. Toole, Democrat, for president. The convention then adjourned until 1 o'clock today. It is believed that the session can be concluded in three weeks.

MINERS' TROUBLES.

Hungarians Attacked by Strikers at Streator, Illinois.

STREATOR, Ill., July 5.—The Chicago, Wilmington and Vermilion Coal company has been attempting to resume operations at No. 3 shaft, situated just across the line in Livingston county. Yesterday morning about seventy-five miners, mostly Hungarians, attempted to go to work but were met by a party of strikers. One man was quite severely handled but was rescued by some of the strikers who did not believe in violence. Sheriff Wilson arrived from Pontiac yesterday afternoon with a posse of men, and is now in charge of the mine. It is thought that he will be able to preserve the peace without calling on the militia.

A General Denial. OMAHA, Neb., July 5.—Thomas Brennan, of this city, ex-secretary of the Irish National league, said yesterday: "I see the statement is made that I was charged with complicity in the Phoenix Park murders. This is the first I ever heard of it. I don't think I would have any trouble, however, in proving an alibi. I was in an English prison for twelve months immediately preceding and following the Phoenix Park tragedy. The statement that I am a nephew of Patrick Egan is also incorrect. I am no relation to Mr. Egan."

He Wants the Resolution. PITTSBURGH, July 5.—In acknowledging the receipt by Maj. George Ames of the medal presented to him by one hundred Pittsburghers, for having pulled Governor Beaver's nose, a friend of the major writes that he, the major, would be pleased to have the resolution adopted by the one hundred citizens neatly written on parchment, and signed by each of the subscribers, and forwarded to Washington so that the major can have it framed.

Entertaining the Shah. LONDON, July 5.—The shah dined yesterday evening with Lord Caledon, and later attended the ball at Buckingham palace, where he met the Prince of Wales and others of the royal family, many peers, British statesmen, foreign diplomats and others.

What Is to Be Done. RICHMOND, Ind., July 5.—The wheat crop in this section of the state will be above the average. The grain is unusually fine.

Too Much Red Tape.

The Relief for Johnstown Not Properly Handled.

CHICAGO PEOPLE INDIGNANT.

Mrs. S. Jerome Writes a Letter Describing the Needs of the Flood Sufferers—The Relief Almost Entirely Removed—Almost an Epidemic of Cholera Morbus Johnstown Happenings.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., July 5.—The Chicago people have become indignant about the delay in the sending of their relief money to Johnstown, and through Mrs. Dr. Dickinson have asked Mrs. Dr. Francis S. Jerome to tell the needs of Johnstown. In a letter of reply Mrs. Jerome says that unless the people are given outfits of their own they will be ruined and wrecked forever. Their moral characters are fast being lost from their manner of living and the state relief commission are too dilatory in their relief.

She says the people are in a worse condition than a week after the flood, as they could not then realize their situation. Young girls are being ruined and children are running wild. She suggested the establishing of day schools. She asks that the Chicago committee outstart to her the $100,000 now in Chicago, and she will be personally responsible for its distribution, and will give New York millionaires as her bond. She says that if the state does not interfere with red tape, she can house and home every family in the valley inside of ten days.

Col. Douglass, chief engineer, in clearing the debris of the Genesee valley, has resigned, his work being almost completed, and he is not further needed. Gen. Hastings has ordered all contractors to withdraw Saturday. The general will then turn all the work over to one contractor. The heads of departments will return occasionally to look after the work, and Gen. Hastings will be here once a week.

A Hungarian was shot in a drunken row yesterday, and will probably die. There were two bodies recovered yesterday.

Cholera morbus in its worst form is prevalent here. Last night Dr. Foster attended over one hundred cases among the workmen. Early yesterday morning Col. Douglass and Col. Hastings were strictly down with the complaint and are confined to their beds. The physicians say the disease is caused by the continued wet weather. Tents and contents have been seeking wet for the past three days. Except in the cases of Col. Douglass and Gen. Hastings the sickness is not serious. It will require two or three days to bring the general and colored out of the knick.

Early yesterday morning John Donnelly, an employee of the morgue, in a drunken stupor lay down on the Pennsylvania tracks on the stone bridge and went to sleep. A passing train cut off both his legs and caused fatal injuries.

A heavy rain fell yesterday, and the men are working on the new bridge, endeavoring to save that structure, which was damaged, from going out with the flood.

PUNISHMENT OF INDIAN BOYS.

General Armstrong's Reply to the Rev. Dr. Childs's Report.

FORT MONROE, Va., July 4.—Gen. Armstrong makes the following reply to the recent letter of Rev. Dr. Childs, concerning the ill treatment of Indian boys at Hampton school:

"The Rev. J. S. Childs, of Washington, has again published misleading statements concerning the Hampton school's former Indian guard house. Instances of this guard house were taken out a distance into the open air at least three times daily, and as they were aware could terminate their confinement at any moment by doing what was required of them, usually to tell where they got the hats which had been sold or given them, contrary to the laws of the United States and Virginia. The chief design of this room was to fight whiskey, the Indian's greatest enemy."

"Dr. Childs' words that 'the punishment inflicted on these Indian boys was such as our states' prisons do not inflict on the most abandoned criminals' is a characteristic exaggeration. The mistake made by a school officer in understating its dimensions to Dr. Childs was publicly corrected by Gen. Whitteley and Mr. Smiley, of the board of Indian commissioners, yet the statement has been twice repeated by Dr. Childs. The people, the government and the Indians are honestly served here, and the sorting from all is invited. Dr. Childs again claims great credit for the improved food for Indians here. Some credit is due him, but he claims too much."

Serious Flood Damages. FORT WORTH, Tex., July 5.—The Trinity river is higher than since 1863 and is between three and four miles wide in places. The damage in this city is slight but the loss to the railroads and suburban property will be $1,500,000. A Mrs. Bartly and her son Patrick were drowned. Much damage has been done to the crops.

Deported With the Money. NEW YORK, July 5.—The offices of Alfred Carr & Company, bankers and brokers, No. 36 The Street, were in charge of a deputy sheriff all day long yesterday. Mr. Carr's erstwhile customers, who are sadly looking for some $40,000 of vanished cash, passed frequently in an out. It is the old, old story, in which the affable broker, so full of good nature and the knowledge of the way prices were going, has departed with the funds entrusted to his care.

HEAVY RAINS.

The Great Damage in Texas—In the Vicinity of Fort Worth Many are Drowned.

FORT WORTH, Tex., July 5.—Several inches of rain fell in this part of the state yesterday, and great damage has resulted. Reports from the west show heavy rains for 200 miles. The Brazos and the Trinity rivers are booming. At Benbrook, twelve miles west of the bridge of the Texas and Pacific, and 500 feet of track washed away. The St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas for two miles out is submerged. The Missouri, Kansas and Texas and the Fort Worth and Denver have abandoned their train north. The Texas and Pacific has abandoned trains both east and west.

At Fort Worth the bottom lands to the north for two miles and to the east for a mile and a half are submerged and track farms are gone. The Trinity rose four and a half feet in an hour and the dwellers on the low lands barely escaped. City Marshal Farmer, Sheriff Richardson and their entire force for the time became a rescuing corps and manned the boats which brought the people to the city, where they are quartered in large warehouses. There are 200 men, women and children thus cared for.

H. Plume and sister are said to have been washed away, and Mrs. B. S. Bentley and Patrick, her son, who lived on the Trinity, are missing and said to be drowned. Their house was carried away. The river there is two miles wide, and all the cabins and tents are gone. The St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas operator last night received a message that the west fork of the Trinity was coming down with an eight-foot rise. Six inches more of water and the water works will have to be abandoned. Wheat, oats, fruit and cotton are badly damaged.

The loss can hardly be computed, but conservative estimates place it as high as $2,000,000. There is some fear for the little village of Trinity, which is above Fort Worth, but there is no telegraphic communication, and nothing definitive can be learned. At 8 o'clock this morning it was still raining heavily.

CROOKED TRANSACTIONS.

Result in a Kansas City Business Man Taking His Life.

KANSAS CITY, July 5.—The dead body of Francis D. Cammann, president of the Kansas City curling works, was found in the alley in the rear of No. 1431 Holmes this morning. A bullet hole in the right temple told the manner of death, and a .38-caliber revolver clamped in the dead man's right hand was strictly down with the complaint and are confined to their beds. The physicians say the disease is caused by the continued wet weather. Tents and contents have been seeking wet for the past three days. Except in the cases of Col. Douglass and Gen. Hastings the sickness is not serious. It will require two or three days to bring the general and colored out of the knick.

Early yesterday morning John Donnelly, an employee of the morgue, in a drunken stupor lay down on the Pennsylvania tracks on the stone bridge and went to sleep. A passing train cut off both his legs and caused fatal injuries.

A heavy rain fell yesterday, and the men are working on the new bridge, endeavoring to save that structure, which was damaged, from going out with the flood.

SAD ENDING.

Of a Sunday School Pupil—Four Girls and a Youth Drowned.

PITTSBURGH, July 5.—A sad accident happened at the picnic of the Arch Street Methodist Episcopal church of Allegheny City at Forest Grove on the Pittsburgh and Western railroad, yesterday afternoon, by which five young people were drowned. Their names are: Jennie Burton, aged 13 years; May Boyd, aged 10 years; Edna Cassidy, aged 10 years; Fannie McElroy, aged 18 years; and Bert Freeman, aged 20 years.

The five names, together with Edward Shadler took an old barge and started for a ride on Connaughts creek. The stream was very turbulent, and the large caipized, throwing the occupants into the water. Young Shadler succeeded in reaching the shore, but the other four went down before assistance could reach them. The victims were all members of the Sunday school and lived in Allegheny City. Their bodies have not been recovered.

CHICAGO CUTTINGS.

Two Cases Which Result Fatally Occur Yesterday Morning.

CHICAGO, July 5.—John Burns, 25 years old, was probably fatally stabbed by William Brooks, in the latter's house at No. 120 South Halsted street, shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Burns is a colored man, has been infatuated with Brooks' wife, and Brooks, finding him at the house, plunged a knife into his breast and also cut him in the face. The wounded man was taken to the county hospital in a dying condition. Brooks and his wife were locked up at the Desplaines street station.

Peter Peterson, 21 years old, got into a drunken quarrel at Chicago avenue and Market street at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and was fatally stabbed. Four of the men in the crowd have been arrested. The same crowd only a little while before, it is supposed, assaulted Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, who live at 156 Chicago avenue, cutting the woman on the arm.

Startling Statements.

Plenty of Squealers in the Cronin Murder Case.

THEIR EVIDENCE KEPT SECRET.

A Sensational Story Published by the Chicago Tribune—Comments of the Irish World on the Subject—Defending Alexander Sullivan.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The Tribune says: There is nothing new in the Cronin case is the phrase of police headquarters and among the underlings at the state attorney's office. But this is not true. There is more news daily cropping up than at any time since the investigation was commenced. State's Attorney Longenecker's office is besieged by squealers. They are at the criminal court building from early morning until late at night. Mr. Longenecker has evidence gets their names and addresses. They all give evidence as to the moral guilt of Michael Duggan's protégé, evidence what would surprise Duggan himself. But the most important statement yet made has reference to an attempt at subterfuge in behalf of Alex. Sullivan.

The story goes, and there are half a dozen men to authenticate it, that William J. Elliott, of Columbus, O., who lived for a few months in Chicago in 1882, and who now publishes a paper in Columbus, O., called the Sunday Capital, visited Alexander Sullivan some time ago, and afterward visited a man named O'Callaghan, living at Juliet, This O'Callaghan, it is said, agreed to be a witness in the Cronin case, but the Duggan commission, that he is the man who convinced Le Caron into the Clan-na-Gael society, but it is of some importance for Sullivan to free his skirts from the blame of association with Le Caron. O'Callaghan's testimony would, it was thought, go far towards accomplishing this. In explanation it may be said that the William J. Elliott alluded to is a brother-in-law of the triangle agent Maroney and that when he came to Le Caron to negotiate with Callaghan, Mr. Spillman, the district member of the Clan-na-Gael in this state, objected. Every son and brother mixed up in this business is a "sister, cousin or aunt" of the triangle.

Camp 20, of the Clan-na-Gael, had a hall rented in the North Side Turner hall building, but was only entitled to its use on one Friday night of each month. Where the "inner circle" of the camp met has been a matter that has worried the police. In one of Wood's confessions he said that he met O'Callaghan at Duggan's saloon, at the corner of Market and division streets. He also claimed that he met Alexander Sullivan there. The police have received information that the numerous tribunals met at that place. The Duggan deny it, however, and say that no meetings of which they did not know the object were ever held in this place.

Defending Alexander Sullivan.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The next issue of The Irish World will contain a five column editorial signed by the editor, Patrick Ford, declaring that the summary removal of Dr. Cronin was the work of English spies and American spies. Editor Ford avows that the desperate band of The London Times is furiously revealed in the foul conspiracy to fix the murder of Cronin where it does not belong, upon Alex. Sullivan.

EIGHT-HOUR DEMONSTRATION.

Rain Interferes With the Parade in Philadelphia—In Chicago.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—There was an "eight hours to the day of labor" demonstration yesterday in this city. The downpour of rain interfered with the arrangement so much that the "monster demonstration" would not number a full regiment. In the afternoon during a cessation of rain, two or three games were participated in, and it was finally agreed that the games would be postponed until Labor day.

Key Hugh O. Pentecost made a few remarks on the subject of eight hours, and said that the decrease in the working hours would afford more employment and also give the working man leisure for improvement.

In Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The eight hour demonstration of the American Federation of Labor here yesterday was a grand success. About 1,000 men took part in the parade through the city in the morning, and fully 10,000 people gathered at Chetopa's bench during the afternoon and evening to hear speeches, witness athletic contests, fireworks, etc. Speeches in favor of the eight hour labor law were delivered by Samuel Gompers, of New York, president of the American Federation of Labor, Mayor Greigier and others.

OVER A HUNDRED PEOPLE INJURED.

A Grand Stand at a Race Course Falls With Over a Thousand Persons.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 5.—The grand stand at the race track collapsed at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, injuring more than one hundred persons, many fatally. One thousand people crowded into the stand when the horses came to the post and then suddenly, without any warning, the structure went down, burying more than 500 in the ruins.

For a second the outside spectators were paralyzed by the accident. Then, as the cries and groans of the wounded filled the air, they rushed forward and began the work of rescue. The victims were dragged out and carried to places of safety, or put in ambulances and sent into town. Col. Wade, the commanding officer here, sent the military and physicians to the scene promptly and gave material aid.

The escape of the crowd from death was miraculous and incredible, as it appears, only one person was killed outright, a child of Dr. J. A. Ryan.
